The Pico Rivera Housing Assistance Agency's Annual PHA Plan is a comprehensive agency plan that summarizes the planned activities and policies of the Agency for fiscal year 2006-2007. Quite a large part of the plan contains questions concerning public housing. These sections and individual questions pertaining to public housing have been left blank, because Pico Rivera does not administer public housing. The plan was developed as a requirement of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (QHWRA) and was developed in complete cooperation with the residents, resident advisory board, staff and commissioners of the Agency.

The Agency's Administrative Plan was revised on January 12, 2005 to accommodate any new mandatory Federal provisions or Agency's policy changes. Copies of this plan are available for inspection and copying by the general public.

9. Additional Information

[24 CFR Part 903.12 (b), 903.7 (r)]

A. PHA Progress in Meeting the Mission and Goals Described in the 5-Year Plan

(Provide a statement of the PHA's progress against the goals and objectives established in the previous 5-Year Plan for the period FY 2000 – 2004.)

The Pico Rivera Housing Assistance Agency (Agency) continues to carry out its mission of assisting low-income families to obtain suitable affordable housing, exercise location choice and become more economically self-sufficient. The Agency provides over 480 individuals and families with rental assistance subsidies through the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. Successful program design and implementation has resulted in efficient use of resources and effective collaborations among social service agencies and local units of government.

In order to expand the choice and supply of affordable housing, the Agency has implemented a number of strategies that include exercising its authority to cap exception payment standards to 100% of the FMR for the Section 8 program, developing targeted marketing programs to increase landlord participation and contracting with a Fair Housing Organization to provide landlord/tenant counseling. The Agency strives to manage its program in a manner that enables the maximum number of families to be served that is within the Agency's allocation and voucher baseline units of 517.

The Agency continues to take steps to maintain and improve the quality of assisted housing by creating a supportive environment for staff, program participants and landlords to discuss and resolve issues of mutual concern.

In order to provide opportunities for an improved living environment to its Section 8 program participants, the Agency encourages deconcentration of low-income housing throughout the region. Program briefing materials include maps that indicate areas of concentration and information on the Agency jurisdiction.

Self-sufficiency of its program participants is encouraged through the Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program administered by the Agency. The FSS Program is available to all Section 8 participants and includes the opportunity to establish a savings account that escrows the increased earning capacity of families as they become more economically self sufficient.

The City currently contracts with the Southern California Housing Rights Center for the administration of a Fair Housing Counseling Program. The purpose of the Housing Rights Center is to actively support and promote freedom of residence through education, advocacy, and litigation, to the end that all person have opportunity to secure the housing they desire and can afford, without regard to their race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, familial status, marital status, disability, ancestry, age, source of income or other characteristics protected by law.

The Housing Rights Center provides a wide array of programs and services to its clients free of charge. The Housing Rights Center is able to assist clients in eight different languages: Spanish, Mandarin, Armenian, Russian, Portuguese, Cantonese, Korean and English.

The Agency's SEMAP score has continued to increase over the last few years. In FY 2001-02, the Agency received a "Standard" rating of 81. In FY 2002-03, the Agency received a "Standard" rating of 85. In FY 2003-04, the Agency received a "High Performer" rating of 135. In FY 2004-05, the Agency again received a "High Performer" rating of 135.

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

a. Substantial Deviation from the 5-Year Plan

A "Substantial Deviation" from the 5-Year Plan shall be defined as discretionary changes in the plans or policies of the Agency that fundamentally change the mission, goals, objectives, or plans of the agency and which require formal approval of the Board of Commissioners.

b. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan

A “Significant Amendment or Modification” to the Annual Plan shall be defined as discretionary changes in the plans or policies of the Agency that fundamentally change the mission, goals, objectives, or plans of the agency and which require formal approval of the Board of Commissioners.

An exception to this definition of “Substantial Deviation” and “Significant Amendment or Modification” to the Agency’s Plan will be made for any of the above adopted policies to reflect changes in HUD regulatory requirements.

Any “Substantial Deviation” and “Significant Amendment or Modification” to the Agency’s Plan will meet the full public process requirements prior to a revised PHA Annual Plan being submitted to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for approval.
